CONGRATULATIONS!

Congratulations to all the Wyoming County Schools' personnel who have retired during the 2016-17 school term. The Wyoming County Board of Education appreciates their years of dedication to the children of Wyoming County. Their work, creativity, and energy have improved the lives of countless children throughout their career. Their life's work in service to children has made a profound impact on the world. Thanks to each of our retirees. Best wishes and may your life be richly blessed.

A complete list of retirees starts on the next page.

Opening Day

Aug. 9, 2017

You Talked... We Listened !

For Opening Day, all employees will report to their home schools INSTEAD of a collective meeting at one of the high schools. This year's Opening Day will give all employees time at their home schools to prepare for the arrival of students.

All employees will report to their home schools or departments unless they need to attend specific trainings. An employee will be notified of any specific county training that they need to attend.

No county training will take place on Friday, August 11, 2017.

All employees will be at their home school on this day for school-level meetings.

Thank you,
County Staff Development Council
