October 22 – 26 has been designated as Anti-Bullying/Red Ribbon Week. Activities will be conducted daily to help encourage students to make good choices and to be kind.

The motto for the week will be:

*Red, white, and blue
Be a peaceful and a positive you!*

Red = anti-drugs

White = peace

Blue = anti-bullying

On Wednesday, September 26, 2018, Mrs. Stephanie Hayes, Coordinator of Counseling Services, from the West Virginia Department of Education attended the monthly meeting of our school counselors.

Mrs. Hayes addressed a variety of topics related to the School Counseling Model. She also collaborated with our counselors to enhance the delivery of their services.

SUPERINTENDENT'S STUDENT COUNCIL

The Superintendent's Student Council will meet on Friday, October 19, at the Wyoming County Career and Technical Center starting at 10:00 a.m.

A pep rally was held on Friday, September 21, at Westside High School to kick off the Communities in Schools (CIS) program. CIS programs are designed to provide resources to help students stay in school.

Mrs. Deirdre A. Cline, Superintendent, welcomed the guests and expressed appreciation for the opportunity to participate in the CIS program.

First Lady Cathy Justice, State Superintendent of Schools Dr. Steven Paine, retired Marshall University Coach Bob Pruett, and WV Department of Arts, Culture, and History Curator Randall Reid-Smith delivered remarks of encouragement to the Westside High student body.

Westside High graduates Katelyn Sanders and Sydney Lambert encouraged students to set goals and work hard to achieve them.

Coach Bob Pruett also encouraged students to believe in their ability to achieve and to make their dreams come true through hard work and dedication.

Mrs. Kathy Jo Brunty will be the Site Facilitator of the CIS Program at Westside High School.

My Promises to You, My Students

I promise to be nice and smile often.
I promise to care about each of you.
I promise to be understanding.
I promise to help you when you are struggling.
I promise to be patient with you.
I promise to be fair and consistent.
I promise to enjoy teaching you.
I promise to be trustworthy.
I promise never to scream at you.
I promise that I will get to know you.
I promise to believe in you.
I promise to make learning interesting and meaningful.
I promise that I will not intentionally embarrass you.
I promise that I will challenge you to be your very best.
I promise to do everything I can to help you succeed.
And I promise that, no matter what, I will never give up on you.
