

Parents of Juniors and Seniors

Wyoming County Schools is required by state and federal law to provide, upon request, contact information for high school juniors and seniors to branches of the United States Armed Forces.

Parents who do not want their child's name, address, and phone number released to branches of the Armed Forces, please notify the Counseling Office of your child's school.