Dear Parent/Guardian of an Upcoming Freshman:

On Tuesday, August 27, 2019, Wyoming East High School will host a Warrior Academy for all incoming freshmen. August 27 will operate on the same schedule as a regular school day (7:20 am – 2:48 pm). Buses will make morning and evening runs. Breakfast and lunch will be served. Attendance is optional but strongly recommended.

The academy will begin with a Freshman Orientation at approximately 7:30 a.m. Parents are encouraged to attend this very important meeting with their child. Many aspects of the high school experience will be covered. Parents are also invited to attend a special workshop designed to help their child navigate high school.

Freshmen will receive their class schedule and meet each of their teachers. Freshmen will also be assigned a locker, taken on tours, and receive special Warrior Spirit training among many other procedural and fun activities.

Over the summer, you will receive additional notifications regarding the Warrior Academy via postal mail, Wyoming County Board of Education Facebook and App, and SchoolMessenger. If you have any questions, please contact Robin Hall, Assistant Superintendent of Secondary Schools, at 304-732-6262, ext. 1102 or at nrhall@k12.wv.us.

Sincerely yours,

Deirdre A. Cline
Superintendent
